Mrs Miller would like to thank the volunteers who come into school to deliver our better Reading Scheme.

It is greatly appreciated and the children really enjoy reading to their partners and we have achieved some amazing results this year.

The year 6 production of Grease can be watched by following the link <https://youtu.be/jBkDLot52-o> or via the school website. Thanks

Don't forget.....

Craft session and Children's Parade - as part of the Copley Cricket Club Food on the Field event for the Village, a Children's parade will take place on Monday 28th August and a Craft session on Wednesday 16th August. The free craft session is on 16th August at 2pm, in the cricket club - we'll be making Animal & Superhero masks to be worn at the Children's Parade. The Parade on the 28th Aug starts at 11.30am from the Canal side at Copley, around the new and old village, finishing at the Cricket Club's Food on the Field event. Children can wear fancy dress, wave flags and sing to music whilst we show the village our superhero fancy dress costumes! Please come and have fun in the Village! All children must be supervised by an adult during the session and parade.

Have a fantastic summer holiday...

We will see you all bright and breezy on Tuesday 5th September!!
