Can you help?

We are wondering if you could send any small empty jars to school next week instead of sending them to the recycling bin? Pickle jars...jam jars.....along with the lids please. We are going to use them for the Christmas fair. Thanks in anticipation

Payments to school....

By signing up for school meals and after school clubs you are agreeing to pay for these services, at a minimum, on a weekly basis.

KS2 school meals this term will be £74.80, if your child has a dinner every day. Dinners are £2.20 per day ...I'll leave you with the maths!

Please remember to return your child's Christmas lunch form as soon as possible please.

Christmas lunch is on Tuesday 12th December.

Antibullying week 2017

This week we have been talking to the children about the theme of this year's national antibullying campaign: All different, All equal. Thank you for the support you have shown with our Odd Socks Day.

We have also re-visited the processes and procedures in place at school to deal with any bullying that may occur for any of the children.

One thing we work really hard on with the children is the difference between bullying and the usual friendship fallouts.

Please can you continue to support us at home with making that distinction, so if any issue is brought to us, we are directing all our time and resources into resolving the important issues.

The always badge scheme also supports all the work we do in this area and reminds the children each week the consequences of bullying in our school.

If you are concerned about your child at any time please contact any member of the senior leadership team or the class teacher.
